

Volunteer Application Confidential

Thank you so much for expressing interest in serving at Planet Shakers City Church in Planetkids our Children's Ministry. Every week we surround kids with a creative and fun learning environment so that they can get to know the awesome God who loves them. To maintain our commitment to excellence, we set high standards in the areas of safety and security. This is a lengthy application for you to fill out; however it is necessary for preserving our safe environment and complying with the National Child protection requirements from the A.O.G. We hope that you will not be offended by this application and realize the value of your investment in the protection of our children. We thank you for understanding and look forward to ministering together.

You must fully and accurately complete this Volunteer Application.
